

Kind attention all concerned

This is to inform all parents of classes V-XII that henceforth, under no circumstance, will the school authorities entertain any communication related to the child's activities within the school premises or beyond (related to education ,school affairs , etc)

with none, except parents who have registered themselves as their daughter's legal guardian in the school, at the time of admission

This is strictly binding except in exceptional cases such as :-

- death of both parents.
- divorce cases where none of the biological parents have received the child's custody.
- both parents are migrant workers and have intimated the school authorities in writing about it

Please note: In the first two adverse cases legal papers should validate the claim.
