

A small initiative by Barasat Girls' High School (HS)

EARTH DAY 2026

Today, as our students celebrated Earth Day, their innocent voices carried a quiet promise—to heal a world they did not break.

In their gentle hands holding saplings, there was hope, love, and a deep, unspoken responsibility.

It moved us to see how deeply they care for this fragile Earth, our only home.

May their compassion never fade, and may we learn from them before it is too late. 🌍 💔 ❤️